

The Region's Largest Benefit Wine, Craft Beer & Food Tasting

PROCEEDS BENEFIT
PUBLIC TELEVISION

WGBY

Wine
& Food
Lovers

34th annual WEEKEND

WGBY.ORG/WINE

CHEF SANFORD D'AMATO
of Good Stock Farm celebrates our diverse local community with a two-day culinary theme he calls "The Edible Footprint of the Pioneer Valley."

GET TICKETS AT WGBY.ORG/WINE

or in-store at Table & Vine
in West Springfield.

WINE, CRAFT BEER & FOOD TASTING

It's the tastiest way to support public media!
More than 70 vendors pour 300+ beverages for an evening of decadent sampling and comparing.
PLUS! Taste local flavors and recipes from 20 area chefs and food artisans.

Friday, March 15
5-8 p.m., Springfield
Tower Square Hotel
wgby.org/tasting

WINE LOVERS GOURMET DINNER

Seven courses of "Contemporary Ethnic" cuisine, each expertly paired with fine wines.
Menu designed by Chef Sanford D'Amato and skillfully executed by Chef Bill Rounds.
Pairings selected by Table & Vine's Michael Quinlan.

Saturday, March 16
6-10 p.m., Springfield
Tower Square Hotel
wgby.org/dinner

MARCH 15/16
SPRINGFIELD

On Friday, March 15, local chefs will serve flavorful bites celebrating "The Edible Pioneer Valley." Restaurants include:
Good Stock Farm Spoleto
The Red Lion Inn Holyoke Hummus
Center Square Grill The Bistro at Storrowton Tavern Gateway City Arts

TABLE & VINE
BusinessWest The Republican.

DENNIS GROUP

Design Elements By Laura Radwell